Welcome and Introduction

All about Gail

Gail Patricia Hewlett, 80, passed away in her home unexpectedly on Tuesday, 3 October 2023.

Gail was born on July 22, 1943, in Otahuhu. Gail grew up in Tahuna, Morrinsville with her adopted family on a farm.

After leaving school, Gail met, married and had 4 children. Michael, Stephen, Donna and Murray. Sadly Michael passed away after birth. They moved to Mount Manganui where the children grew up. Links Avenue was the party zone, where all the neighbourhood couples were called Aunts and Uncles to each other's children.

Gail had a lot of interesting hobbies including Netball, Basketball, Karate and being a Brown Owl for the Girl Guides.

Gail and David eventually separated, and Gail lived her life with her children and friends in Dingadee Street. Which was also well known for its neighbourly parties.

During this time Gail worked hard as a staff supervisor at a large factory in Mount Maunganui for many years and worked for IHC until she retired. Gail always had arms open for anybody in need. In retirement Gail moved to Fielding to live with a very close friend Melvie and then with her daughter Donna and her family.

In later life Gail remained a fun loving easy to talk to person, who enjoyed soapies and a few Ranfurly's. Gail was loved dearly by her family and friends and will be so missed

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed
Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
This grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home
When we've been here ten thousand years
Bright, shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun
Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

The Lord's prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory
For ever and ever. Amen.
